Why Invest in Nueva Andalucia, Marbella Nueva Andalucía is one of the most exclusive and sought-after areas on the Costa del Sol, renowned for its proximity to Puerto Banus, world-class golf courses, and vibrant nightlife. Investing in this area offers:

- Growth Potential: The luxury real estate market on the Costa del Sol grew by 20% in 2024, with investments exceeding €3.2 billion in the 'Golden Triangle' of Marbella, Estepona, and Benahavís.
- High Profitability: The combination of rising international demand and a limited supply of exclusive properties ensures high returns for investors.
- Long-Term Value: Marbella's reputation as a luxury destination guarantees sustained and appreciating property values over time.

A Unique Investment Opportunity The project offers a flexible and attractive residential and investment plan tailored to your needs. You can reside in your unit for part of the year and achieve maximum returns during the remaining months, with none of the hassles of managing a rental property. How It Works:

- Profitability: Achieve returns significantly above industry standards by optimizing revenues and minimizing costs through economies of scale and meticulously planned product strategy.
- High Occupancy Rates: Maximize resort occupancy through multiple platforms, channel managers, and strategic partnerships.
- Maintenance: Keep your property in optimal condition through continuous reinvestment, ensuring the highest possible resale value.
- Hassle-Free Rentals: Rent out your property without the restrictions often associated with tourist apartments.
- Projected ROI: 8% annually*, with 3.5% guaranteed*. (*Supported by an economic model designed by Ernst & Young.)

With prices starting at €725,000 for 2-bedroom apartments and €1,100,000 for 4-bedroom villas, this is an unmissable opportunity to invest in one of the most exclusive destinations on the Costa del Sol.
